

"A Second Chance for Children: Embracing the Future"

Save the Date: May 11-12, 2005

NONPROFIT ORG.
U.S. POSTAGE
PAID
ATLANTA, GA
PERMIT # 152

National Center on Grandparents Raising Grandchildren National Symposium

Save the Date

May 11 & 12, 2005
Wyndham Atlanta Hotel
Atlanta, GA

“A Second Chance for Children: Embracing the Future”

A symposium featuring best practices in research, policy and practice for professionals, researchers, policy makers, academics and others interested in the growing phenomenon of grandparents raising grandchildren and other intergenerational kinship care issues.

Plenary Topics and Faculty:

Increasing Life Chances for Disadvantaged Children

Geoffrey Canada, MA, President/CEO,
Harlem Children's Zone

Child Abuse Trauma: Theory and Treatment of the Lasting Effects

John Briere, PhD, Associate Professor of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences

Grandparents Raising Grandchildren: Impact on Physical and Mental Health

Meredith Minkler, PhD, Professor, School of Public Health, University of California

Children's Rights to Protection: Are We Doing Enough

Don Keenan, Esquire, Founder-Partner,
Keenan Law Firm

Also Featuring:

Workshop Tracks:

Policy, Practice, Research, Legal,
Capacity Building

Selected Topics:

- Faith-based Community Collaboratives
- Program Evaluation
- Intergenerational Kinship Care Families' Legal Rights and Benefits
- Education and Public Interest Law
- Intergenerational Kinship Care Public Policy Issues
- Project Healthy Grandparents: Best Practices/Lessons Learned
- Emerging Culture of Sexploitation: Impact on Youth and Caregivers
- Grandparent Caregiving for Children of Incarcerated Persons
- Empirical, Theory-based Parenting Programs

Ask the Foundation Experts: Foundation Funders Panel

Freddie Mac Foundation, Hasbro Children's Foundation and others.

Registration:

Early Registration (by March 15, 2005)	$250.00
Registration (after March 15, 2005)	$300.00
Students with Status Verification	$165.00

Presenting Sponsor

Additional Sponsors

For More Information:

Call 404-651-1049

Email nationalcenter@gsu.edu

Visit the website at <http://chhs.gsu.edu/nationalcenter/>